Prayer from the Congregation

Dear lord we bless and praise Your Name for the privilege of joining together, freely, in worship. We are mindful of the fact that thousands of brother & sister Christians dare not meet together for worship because of persecution, and have to keep their faith a secret for fear of violence, arrest, imprisonment and other threats. We remember them in prayer now and ask that they may know that they are not forgotten by their worldwide family. May the day soon come when freedom to join together in worship is a universal reality for everyone. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen
